Style Guide

Using our logo

Fitted Logo

Used over coloured backgrounds and images

Fitted Logo Variant

Used over white backgrounds

The logo is used in its main variant whenever possible. The logo can be substituted by the icon only when its size does not allow the readability of the product name.

DO

DON'T

Our Palette

Fitted relies on the use of white backgrounds to ensure a light and friendly aesthetic.

Most visual elements use the characteristic Fitted gradient to stand out and attract the user’s attention.

Our Blue is used for primary buttons and CTAs, while the orange is used for errors, and urgent messages (e.g. notifications).

Sliders

Our sliders are simple and intuitive. They must include the numeric specification in large font size. The directional arrows help the user fine-tune their selection.

Progress bar

Grey indicates the steps that are yet to be reached. The green colour indicates the completed steps. The dots are coloured only once a step is completed.

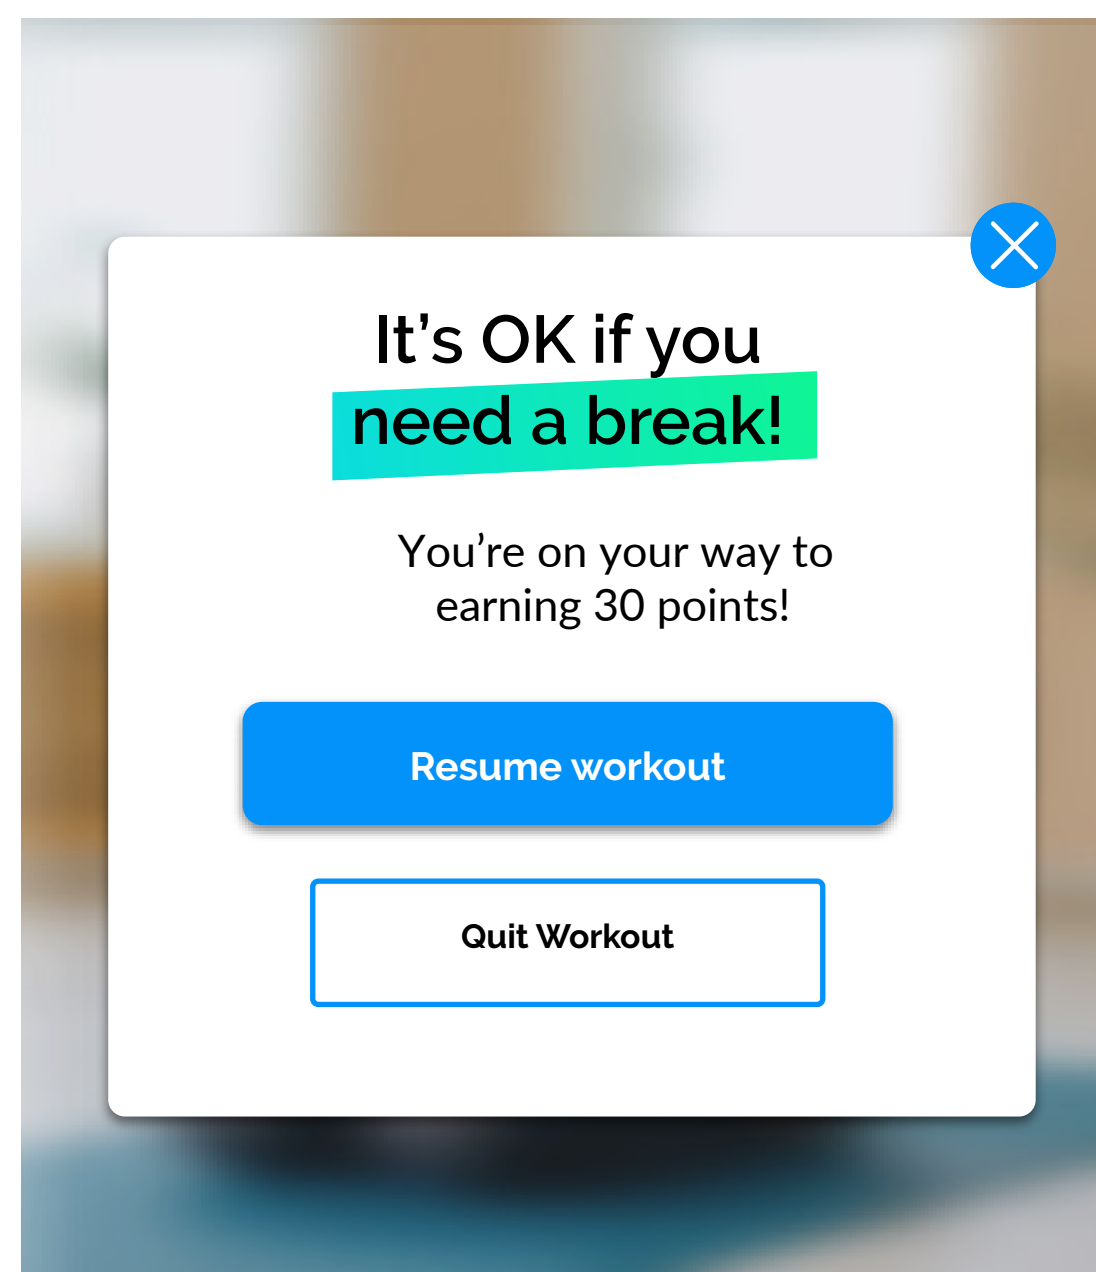

Cards and Pop-ups

Cards are separated from the background with a drop shadow effect and green border.

Card titles are highlighted by a stripe with the Fitted gradient.

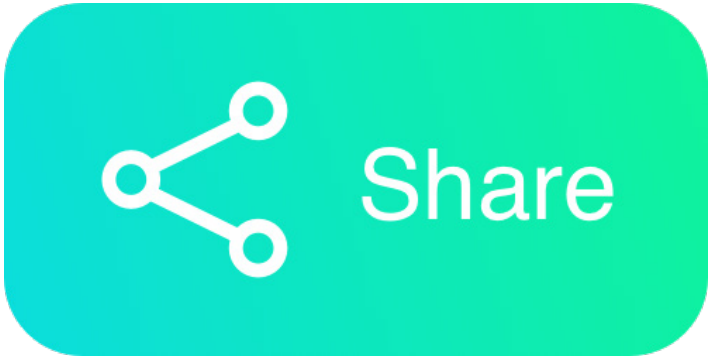

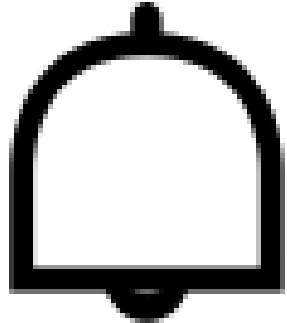

Modal windows are separated from the background with a drop shadow effect and background blur.

The main text can be highlighted with the Fitted gradient.

Modal windows always provide a main CTA and the possibility to close the window.
